

Statement

The Dean of the Faculty of Management and Social Communication of 12.03.2020

Regarding: on the principles of student service to prevent the spread of a virus

Supplement to Regulation 817.020.5.2020 from 11.03.2020

- a. the direct service of students by the relevant secretariat or dean's office and the admission of students to the building of the Faculty of Management and Social Communication are withheld – until further notice
- b. in urgent matters requiring settling, please contact the person supporting the group via e-mail
telephone
- c. within the existing possibilities, the relevant secretariat employees remotely or via postal service handle the reported cases
- d. the Minister of Science and Higher Education provides for the extension of the validity of the students ID card until the 31.05.2020 by virtue of law by amending the regulations, of which we will immediately inform

Statement enters into force immediately.

I am asking again for a responsible approach to the problem and for respecting one's own health and the health of others, e.g.

- limitation of direct contacts
- avoiding meetings and larger groups of people
- suspension of trips abroad

which will tend to minimize the spread of the virus
